

HKU Exchange Application - English Proficiency Proof Requirement

English proficiency proof must be uploaded by home institution to the Incoming Exchange Application System.

Non-native English Speakers First language is NOT English / Teaching medium at Home Institution is NOT fully taught in English	Native English Speakers First language is English / Teaching medium at Home Institution is fully taught in English
Home institution should ensure students have fulfilled the below English proficiency requirements and collect document proof from them for submission. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>✓ English Test Results achieved from at least ONE of the English Language Requirement</li><li>✓ Faculty of Law applicants MUST achieve higher English Language Requirement: TOEFL (iBT) 97 / IELTS 7.0 (with no subtest below 6.5)</li></ul>  Please ensure that the English Language Proof is within the validity period.	Home institutions should prepare and submit ONE of the following documents for students. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>✓ Signed &amp; stamped English Language Proficiency Statement for Incoming Students</li><li>✓ English Statement Letter stating that the student is enrolled to fully English Taught Programme (Note: Only applicable to Non-English taught institutions in which student is enrolled to a programme that is fully taught in English)</li></ul>

Important Notes:

- The University of Hong Kong reserves the right to ask for further proof of sufficient English language proficiency.
- Students that failed to meet minimum English Language requirement will NOT be considered for application.
- Any expired or invalid English Language Proof will NOT be accepted.
- English Language proof must be submitted by Exchange Coordinators, any submission by students will NOT be accepted.